Dear Earl Warren Parents,

We have an exciting opportunity for your 8th grade student to extend his/her classroom learning. As part of the 8th grade English curriculum, all students study The Diary of Anne Frank and learn about the events of World War II and the Holocaust. These topics, and others relating to tolerance, are explored in a hands-on environment at The Museum of Tolerance in Los Angeles. Earl Warren would like to take all of its eighth-graders by bus on a field trip to visit The Museum of Tolerance. Your signature on the attached permission slip returned by Friday February 23rd will reserve a spot for your student on this educational tour of the museum. The details are as follows:

What: Trip to The Museum of Tolerance

Who: All 8th grade EW students

When: Monday March 5th. Chaperoned buses will depart from EWMS at 8:45 AM and return between 5 and 6:00 PM*.

Cost: Requested Donation $20.

Your donation helps offset transportation costs for the day. All students will be able to attend the field trip regardless of a family's ability to donate.

Students need to bring a lunch.

Students who usually receive free lunch will be provided with one.

*The guided tour of the museum begins at 11:15 and will take 3 hours. Arrival time back to EW will vary depending on traffic conditions. On the day of the event, parents may call (858)755-1558 extension 4402 for updates on estimated arrival for pick-up of their student.

We look forward to including your child in this unique learning opportunity.

Sincerely,

Reno Medina
EWMS Principal
